ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATER.

The Pride of Jennico, Four Reel Famous Players' Feature Special Attraction Today.

For the mid-week change of programme at this theatre another exceptionally strong bill has been booked that will maintain the high standard of this popular theatre. The added attraction today is another of the Famous Players Class A attractions, presented by Daniel Frohman, called "The Pride of Jennico," produced in four magnificent reels. The story deals with the days of romance when fortune and glory were carved by the sword, and tells how a naughty little Princess is tamed by love, and how a haughty young noble is humbled by the same influence. The Pride of Jennico is easily one of the best productions presented by this notable company and one everyone should see. Another good dramatic feature is The Latent Spark, a two reel Domino production, in which two men reluctant to be a hero, are forced to become one. Our Mutual Girl is found at last in this 23rd chapter and the mystery surrounding her strange disappearance is cleared up. The Beloved Busy Day is another of those funny Keystone comedies that can make everybody laugh with charming Macie Norman featured.
Messrs. Boyle and Craig have a concert programme that will prove a winner. Mr. Boyle is singing his own match song, called "Jimmy Boy." Mr. Craig sings "How Along River" and "see, a beautiful love song and their duet is the Wounded Soldier, a big number that they sing as well as any they have sung previously. The two singers have become big favorites with the Norwich people and their singing is one of the many features of the shows here.

Matinee every day at 2.30, all seats 10 cents, children 5 cents. Special attention given to ladies and children at the matinee performances. Come in and be cool, it's never hot inside the Davis.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"A Girl of the Cafes," Two Reel Lubin, Story of New York Life.

Dorothy Vernon, a typical New York girl practically brought up on the streets, is a well dressed, well living in style, owing it all to her earnings as stool pigeon for a gang of crooks. She is sick and tired of the life and in desperation answers a matrimonial advertisement in a Western paper. The Western farmer duly impressed with her photo and descriptions sends for her and they are married. So the little girl is provided with a new mother, and the old housekeeper discharged. In a rage, the housekeeper grasps at a straw, and finding a portion of a torn letter to the wife from her friends in New York, she learns of the wife's former life. Hastening to the husband, he is told all, but he in a heroic manner ignores all, and Dorothy and her faithful heart in which to place her affection, and the venomous housekeeper seeks greener fields. "Bunny's Well Affair," with John Bunny, Flora Finch and big cast. "A Hot Time in Skunkville," a thrilling story of sky-scaper life, and "A Hot Time in Skunkville," the complete.

Three New Vaudeville Acts and a Wonderful Three Reel Film at Auditorium Today.

For the last half of the week another crack-jack show is offered at the Auditorium, both vaudeville and photo plays are all that can be desired and this combination of two shows in one is meeting the approval of all, a fact that is proven by the steady patronage this popular house enjoys.

On Today's vaudeville programme Hurst and Kelsey, a clever pair of artists will introduce the latest songs and patter, and will form an up-to-the-second refined number. Jonathan, the talking cartoonist, may not be personally known in Norwich, but his work has been seen and laughed at by thousands of people in this town. He is a contributor to Puck, Judge and Life, and is also on the staff of the big Boston dailies. His facility with the pencil is well balanced by his witty talk.

The Artistic Trio have just the kind of an act that has proven to be an applause getter. They combine music and voice in a most charming manner with the aid of a harp, a violin and sweet singer. You can't help liking this act.

Today is the last opportunity of seeing what the management thinks is one of the most remarkable films ever produced. This is "The Triumph of Mind," a three part drama based on mental psychology, or the power of mind over matter. Prof. Munsterberg, the eminent authority on such matters has called this film a "Picture with a Purpose." The film was written, produced and acted by Lois Weber and Philipps Smalley, the most intellectual photo players in limelight. Some of the scenes are furnished by "Cooksville Goes Skating," a bunch of hilarity from the Frontier studio.

Our old friend, "Lucille Love," comes tomorrow, and she is cracking the International spy across the Pacific to San Francisco. Antipated Weekly No. 114 is also on hand for Friday and Saturday.

Don't worry about the weather, it is always 75 degrees inside the Auditorium. Bring your own thermometer and prove it.

Library Benefit at Mansfield.
Owing to the kindness and interest of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Perry of Mansfield Center, a concert programme will be given on the lawn at Idlemans, the Perry mansion, on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 8, for the benefit of the Mansfield Town library. The programme is under the direction of Sam Johnson of Willimantic, the well known minstrel man. Dr. W. K. Flatz, baritone, J. J. Carthy, bass, V. Monica McKeon, soprano, A. Goudreau, trombone soloist, A. E. Meyer, violin, Frank E. Hart, pianist, and the Third City Saxophone quartette of Willimantic, will take part, as well as John English, a baritone from Boston. Sam Johnson will be heard in a monologue.

Excursion to Newport.
Don't forget the popular excursion to Newport, Saturday, particulars of which are given in advertisement in today's issue. The very low rate of fare brings the trip within the reach of all and those contemplating going are liable to disappointment if they delay purchasing tickets, until the morning of the excursion. The trip from New London on the New London Line steamer, City of Lowell, is a sensation with this excursion.

To Ward Off Summer

Complexion Ills

To keep the face smooth, white and beautiful all summer, there's nothing quite so good as ordinary mercurized wax. Only, frocked or discolored skin, so common at this season, is gently absorbed by the wax and replaced by the newer, fresher skin beneath. The face exhibits no trace of the wax, the latter being applied at bedtime and washed off morning. Creams, powders and rouges, on the other hand, are apt to appear more conspicuous than usual these days of excessive perspiration. Just get an ounce of mercurized wax at any drug store and use like cold cream. This will help any skin at once, and in a week or so the complexion will look remarkably youthful and healthy. Sun, winds and flying dust, often cause squinting and other contortions which make wrinkles. You can quickly get rid of every wrinkle, however produced, by using a harmless face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered asphalt in 1/2 pt. witch hazel.

makes it one of the most charming water trips of the season.
